Defendants.

Case No. CJ-2023-142
Hon. Thad Balkman

JOURNAL ENTRY REGARDING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE AND FOR SANCTIONS AND STATE FARM'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

On June 23, 2026, counsel for Plaintiffs Don and Brenda Foster; and counsel for Defendants State Farm Fire and Casualty Company ("State Farm") came before the Court for hearing on (1) Plaintiffs' Motion to Show Cause and for Sanctions Against State Farm and (2) State Farm's Motion for Extension of time to Produce Documents, among other motions. Having read all the related pleadings and considered the same, as well as having heard and considered oral argument presented by counsel for the parties, the Court finds as follows:

1. State Farm's Motion for Extension of Time to Produce Documents seeks an extension until July 30, 2026 to produce documents and supplement discovery responses as previously ordered by the Court in its January 28, 2026 Order. The Court hereby finds State Farm's Motion for Extension of Time is GRANTED, provided however, that this extension is granted subject to the following conditions:

a. State Farm shall complete its discovery obligations in good faith by making timely and complete production as ordered and set forth by the Court in its January 28, 2026 Order no later than July 30, 2026. State Farm's obligations to comply with this Court's May 14, 2026, Order (entered on June 13, 2026) are not affected by this Order and State Farm shall engage in a good faith and timely production of all discovery ordered and compelled by the Court in its May 14, 2026 Order no later than July 1, 2026.

2. Plaintiffs' Motion to Show Cause and for Sanctions is DEFERRED until after the July 30, 2026, production deadline expires. At such time, the Court will consider whether sanctions against State Farm are warranted, including attorneys' fees, appearance of a State Farm representative at discovery hearings, fee shifting and/or any such other relief that Plaintiffs may request in an re-urged motion and/or supplementation of evidence, if any, of State Farm's non-compliance and/or failure to make a timely, good faith production of all documents subject to this Court's January 28, 2026 Order, as well as May 14, 2026, Order.

3. The Court further reiterates its previous order (memorialized in the Court's May 14, 2026 Journal Entry) requiring a producing party to provide formal written supplementation that clearly and specifically identifies which produced documents are responsive to each discovery request. Full compliance with this process is expected and ordered and shall be part of this Court's consideration on sanctions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 20 day of June, 2026.
